Next-generation beds

ECO-RESPONSIBLE DESIGN

SKYY massage beds, a fusion of style and sustainability, are not only made with materials featuring elegant textures and an appealing color palette, but also promote the purity of indoor environments like treatment cabins.

Why choose them:

- Indoor Health and Wellness Certification: With the prestigious "Indoor Air Comfort GOLD" recognition, SKYY commits to uncompromising biocompatibility, promoting a healthier and purer environment.
- Eco-compatibility and Sustainability: Made in accordance with environmental principles, our materials come from responsibly managed forests, ensuring a sustainable and conscious production.

MAXIMISING COMFORT LAYER BY LAYER

Our mattress is designed for ultimate comfort, featuring three layers of foam each carefully calibrated for distinct densities.

This purposeful foam selection not only delivers immediate comfort and coziness but also ensures long-term body support and long-lasting durability.

ERGONOMICS, SERIOUSLY

SKYY is deeply committed to the science of body ergonomics. Hergo System isn't just a design feat: our specially crafted face hole positions the entire body - head, forehead, shoulders and back overall, in the optimal and comfortable stance, ensuring all muscles are perfectly primed for the treatment.

A SECOND SKIN

We prioritise bio-compatible materials, that is why we proudly display the OEKO-TEX® label. This certificate is the assurance that our mattress upholstery has undergone rigorous testing to ensure it is free from toxic and harmful substances. Offering a cozy skinfeel, naturally.
